What is Key Person Insurance?

The loss of a Key Person within a company can have a dramatic effect on the profitability and the day-to-day running of the business.

Key Person Insurance is a life insurance policy for anyone who contributes to the profitability of your business. It allows you to claim financial support when your business is missing an important member of staff. Which maintains customer confidence and reduces the impact on colleagues.

Who is a key person?

Identifying a Key Person can be subjective, but really anyone whose skills, knowledge, leadership or experience contributes to the company's continued financial success should be considered as part of your Key Person cover.

How is cover arranged?

Normally Key Person cover is arranged by the company taking out the policy. Typically, they will place the policy in the name of the company and on the life of the employee(s) they consider to be a key person.

How is the amount of cover required worked out?

The approach to calculating financial loss will vary from business to business, as will the key individual's value. However, the most widely used methods are:

Multiple of salary whereby the key person's salary is multiplied by a given factor, usually somewhere between five and ten times their salary.

Cash Flow which reflects the impact the individual could have on cash flow. This is calculated using the Key Person's Remuneration x Turnover x Recovery Period divided by the Total Salary Payroll.

Specific where a company needs to cover a value set by an investor or a loan from an institution who will dictate the level of cover.

Myth Busting

Key Person Insurance doesn't only cover death in service. You can also get insurance for terminal illness, permanent disability and critical illness.

Did you know?

52% of SMEs would cease operating in under a year if they lost a key person*

Key Fact

Key Person Cover can include a renewable option where cover can be renewed at the end of the initial policy term without further medical evidence needed by the insurer.

Why choose Macbeth?

We'll be honest (because that's how we like to do business.) You can buy insurance from any insurance broker. But our business isn't really about insurance and finances; it's about people and relationships. We love getting to know you and your business, finding out what you need and making sure you get it. It's why so much of our business comes from referrals.

And, with over 30 years' experience under our belts, it's fair to say we know a bit or two about insurance.
