

Contractors Combined for Roofers

What is Contractors Combined Insurance?

Contractors Combined Insurance is a bespoke, single-policy insurance that protects Roofers and Roofing Contractors from the very specific and unusual risks involved in roof construction.

Who is it for?

Leadwork roofers, flat roofers, slate or tile roofers for commercial or large-scale residential projects.

Contractors who want full and flexible insurance cover without the hassle of lots of different policies.

Proactive contractors with good risk-management practices and robust health and safety procedures.

How Contractors Combined protects you as a Roofing Contractor

There's no such thing as a standard Contractors Combined policy because no two roofing contracts or contractors are the same. We'll ask lots of questions to work out your risks and then build a bespoke policy around your business. Your policy may include things like:

- ✓ Public liability insurance
- ✓ Tools insurance
- ✓ Sub-contractor insurance
- ✓ Professional indemnity
- ✓ Structural warranties and latent defects

“

“If you're using a scaffolding subcontractor, the nature of their engagement will dictate whether you're responsible for insuring them or whether they'll need their own cover. We can help you work out all those complicated contractual lines of engagement so you're not underinsured.”

Barry Davies, Client Director

Did you know?

You can get Contractors Combined Insurance for one-off roofing projects.

Myth busting

Even if your workforce is made up of sub-contractors, you still need to protect against accidents that your sub-contractors might be liable for.

Common Pitfalls

- ✓ Not all policies cover 'use of heat' in construction (e.g. welding and torch-on products). If you're installing a flat roof or a lead-work roof that requires welding or use of a blow-torch, check your policy for any heat restrictions or exclusions.

Why choose Macbeth?

We'll be honest (because that's how we like to do business.) You can buy insurance from any insurance broker. But our business isn't really about insurance and finances; it's about people and relationships. We love getting to know you and your business, finding out what you need and making sure you get it. It's why so much of our business comes from referrals.

And, with over 30 years' experience under our belts, it's fair to say we know a bit or two about insurance.

What happens if I need to make a claim?

We're here for you when you need us most.

The way we see it, arranging insurance is only half the story. As a business that puts people first, there's no question that we're here to help should you ever need to make a claim. And it couldn't be easier. All you need to do is call your Client Manager at Macbeth, office or mobile, no matter what time. No need to dig around for your policy details.

Just explain what's happened and we'll take over from there.
